

New Hampshire Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

NHACDL Trial Skills Seminar

NHACDL will offer a small-group, intensive, interactive trial skills training with a DUI focus on November 16, 2023 at the UNH Law School. The faculty for this seminar includes nationally-known top trial skills and DUI lawyers Joe Bernard, Mark Thiessen and John Webb. They will be joined by NH DUI and trial skills experts Len Harden and Mark Stevens. (Bios on the NHACDL website)

Voir Dire, Opening, Cross will be the focus of this training but there is flexibility depending on the desires of each small group. The goal will be to get participants on their feet, taking chances and trying things in a risk- and judgment-free space. Participants will be asked to bring a cross, opening and/or voir dire ideas from a past or upcoming case to use for practice segments. Some brief fact patterns will also be provided. The small groups will be 10 people or less with at least two instructors per group. This is a LIMITED SEATING event, so register right away to save your spot!

Schedule

12:30-1:30 - All attend large group - short presentations, quick tips and demos to help you prepare for and excel in litigation.

1:30-1:45 - Break and go into small group rooms

1:45 - 3:15 - Small Group Workshop focusing on cross examination and SFSTs

- Small Group Workshop focusing on methods to hone your voir dire and opening statement

3:15 - 3:30 - break
